Overview

David Gold is the Chief Legal Officer at MG+M and the Managing Partner of the firm's California offices. He manages the firm's legal operations, while working alongside the firm's executive team to develop the financial strategy to improve profitability and the marketing strategy to continue driving the firm's business forward.

David oversees national compliance and ethics issues related to the firm's billing and collection protocols, technology, strategic business development, and staffing. David also advises the firm on compliance with insurance industry protocols, guidelines and audits, and maintains effective partnerships with its insurance client base and his longstanding relationships in the insurance industry.

A trial lawyer with more than 10 years of coverage litigation and trial experience, David also brings 25 years of in-house legal and claims experience in the asbestos, hazardous waste, environmental and other long-tail claims arenas, to the firm. David was a Senior Vice President and Chief Claims Officer at Resolute Management of Berkshire Hathaway's Reinsurance Division, and prior to that, he served as President of Resolute Management Mid-Atlantic division, managing the ACE book of business under a finite reinsurance contract between ACE and Berkshire. Before the inception of that cover, David was acting President of ACE-USA Century Indemnity Company, and Chief Counsel at CIGNA.
