Overview

Jordan Price is an experienced litigator whose practice centers on complex civil matters, including products liability, general liability, construction, professional liability and premises liability matters. She has represented a variety of clients before federal and state courts in Massachusetts and serves on a national counsel defense team overseeing asbestos litigation across the country. Jordan handles all stages of litigation, from fact and expert witness depositions to motion practice, mediation advocacy and trial preparation. She particularly enjoys developing expert witnesses across a range of specialties, including in multidistrict litigation. Through her thoughtful and cost-conscious strategies, Jordan consistently delivers favorable outcomes for her clients.

Away from the office, Jordan enjoys traveling and spending time with her husband, Brantley, and their dog, Charlie.
