Overview

Gabby Voulgaris defends clients facing complex toxic tort matters, including premises and products liability. Gabby has a wide range of experience and has resolved all types of issues. Prior to joining MG+M, Gabby worked as an associate with a boutique litigation and real estate firm in Chicago, where she focused her practice in residential and commercial real estate transactions.

During law school, Gabby worked in litigation for a high volume personal injury and worker's compensation firm. She also served as a law clerk for one of the top rated family law attorneys in Chicago. She has experience in eviction litigation and landlord and tenant law, and represented clients as a student attorney in the University of Illinois Chicago School of Law's Fair Housing Legal Clinic.

Gabby has also competed in various trial competitions. She participated in the 2021 National Online Moot Court Competition and 16th 1L Mock Trial Competition, where she was awarded Best Closing Argument for the Defense out of 24 teams.

While pursuing her undergraduate education in marketing and business, Gabby played Division 1 collegiate softball for Iowa State University. As a past Division 1 athlete, Gabby brings a competitive mindset to her practice, which enhances her ability to achieve success for her clients.
