Overview

Kyle Hosley-Sanchez represents clients in complex matters during all phases of litigation, including asbestos and toxic tort matters. Kyle has experience working on an array of matters from employment investigative work with the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing to Estate Planning.

Prior to joining MG+M, Kyle represented clients involved in an array of insurance defense–related matters, including automobile collisions, dog-bites, premises liability and insurance fraud. Kyle's experience has allowed him to obtain favorable rulings on intricate discovery motions and assist in limiting potential liability for his clients.

In his spare time, Kyle enjoys overhead squat training and true crime documentaries.
