Overview

Christina represents business entities of all sizes and takes pride in leveraging her passion for litigation to defend her clients, resulting in the minimization of risk, liability and exposure.

Prior to joining MG+M, Christina worked as an associate at Bremer Whyte Brown & O'Meara, LLP where she handled matters related to wrongful death, construction defect, premises liability, product liability and personal injury.

While in law school, Christina was a part of the Moot Court Honors Board, as well as the UC Davis Business Law Journal.

Outside of work, Christina enjoys living an active lifestyle, traveling and spending time with her family and friends.
