Overview

Adrianna focuses her practice on toxic tort and product liability litigation. She has extensive experience representing sophisticated corporate entities in product liability, mass tort and toxic tort litigation, including discovery, motion practice, arbitration, deposition, settlement and trial preparation. She also represents clients in rail, bus and other transportation litigation. Throughout the litigation process—from the time the case is filed through trial—Adrianna effectively and efficiently implements strategies to help her clients meet and exceed their objectives. Prior to joining MG+M, Adrianna worked as a member for a litigation defense firm in New Jersey.

While pursuing her legal education at the Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University, Adrianna was recognized with Dean's List Honors and received a merit scholarship.
