Overview

Laura represents clients in complex civil litigation, products liability, toxic torts and asbestos litigation matters. She has extensive experience managing cases through all stages of litigation, from initial filing through trial and settlement.

Prior to joining MG+M, Laura was an attorney at a nonprofit organization, where she represented parents in family court proceedings involving Abuse and Neglect Article 10 petitions brought by the Administration for Children's Services.

While in law school, Laura served as a student attorney in the Human Rights and Gender Justice Clinic at CUNY School of Law. She was part of the Gender Prosecution in Conflict and Atrocities team, conducting legal research on human rights violations during armed conflicts around the world.
