Overview

Patrick Ware is an associate based in MG+M's Wilmington, Delaware office. Patrick focuses his practice on a wide range of complex toxic tort matters, focusing on products liability and asbestos litigation. Patrick also works closely with local government entities offering expertise on a variety of zoning and real estate development issues.

Patrick received his JD from Villanova Charles Widger School of Law, where he served as a managing editor for the Villanova Environmental Law Journal. While in law school, Patrick also worked as a student attorney in Villanova's Farm Worker Legal Aid Clinic, providing pro bono legal representation to workers in Pennsylvania's agricultural industry.

Before practicing law, Patrick enjoyed a successful career as a touring musician, performing with his band throughout the United States and around the world. In his free time, Patrick enjoys cooking, watching Jeopardy with his wife Kaitlin and playing golf.
