Overview

Lauren K. Kim focuses her practice on complex civil litigation for individuals and businesses of all sizes in California state and federal courts.

With a robust background in various areas of law, Lauren represents clients throughout all stages of litigation. Her experience includes general tort litigation, business disputes, premises liability, product liability, personal injury, commercial accidents, contractual issues, employment disputes and alternative dispute resolution.

Lauren vigorously advocates for her clients inside and outside the courtroom. She is known for her commitment to delivering cost-effective and innovative legal solutions tailored to the unique needs of each client. Her client-focused approach and meticulous attention to detail have consistently led to successful outcomes through pre-litigation negotiations, dispositive motions and settlement discussions in both state and federal courts.

Before joining MG+M, Lauren honed her litigation skills at law firms in Los Angeles County, where she represented a diverse range of clients—including insurance companies, amusement parks, retailers, restaurants and transportation companies—throughout the entire litigation process, from initial filing to final resolution.
