Overview

Steven Spaulding has more than 30 years of civil litigation experience. His practice has provided counsel and defense to businesses, from sole proprietors to Fortune 500 companies.

Steven's practice focuses on environmental litigation and toxic torts—including asbestos, silica, benzene, and lead litigation—mass torts, and complex litigation. He has extensive experience in state and federal coordinated matters, including the defense of medical devices.

Steven has also practiced in the areas of general liability, personal injury, products liability, construction defects, Proposition 65 violations, and commercial claims. With a background in restaurant operations, he has also represented and counseled restaurateurs.

Steven previously volunteered as judge pro tempore for the Superior Court for the city and county of San Francisco.
