Overview

Caleb focuses his practice on complex litigation.

Before joining MG+M The Law Firm, Caleb gained litigation experience as a law clerk at a boutique personal injury firm in Minneapolis and as a judicial intern with the Massachusetts Superior Court.

While in law school, Caleb chaired Boston College Law School's nationally ranked Trial Team, competing nationally in cases ranging from prisoner civil rights actions to commercial trucking negligence suits. He earned the CALI Excellence for the Future Award and represented clients in complex family law matters as an SJC 3:03 student attorney through the Boston College Family Justice Litigation Clinic.
