Overview

Aaron Hunt focuses his practice on toxic tort, products liability, premises liability and asbestos litigation. He represents clients in all phases of litigation, including trial preparation, motion practice, and developing case strategy through depositions and written discovery.

Before joining MG+M The Law Firm, Aaron earned a master's degree in medical policy, during which his research was published. He leverages this background to address complex legal issues for his clients.

During law school, Aaron competed on Chicago-Kent College of Law's nationally ranked Trial Advocacy Team. He also served as vice president of the Black Law Students Association and contributed to the Journal of Environmental and Energy Law.

Outside the office, Aaron enjoys recreational sports, exploring local restaurants and cheering on the Memphis Grizzlies.
