Overview

Jack focuses his practice on asbestos litigation, products liability, premises liability and toxic tort litigation. He represents clients in all stages of litigation, including discovery, motion practice and trial preparation.

Before joining MG+M The Law Firm, Jack gained experience with civil litigation and estate planning matters, where he conducted legal research, drafted motions and complaints, reviewed property transactions and assisted in client meetings.

During law school, Jack served on the Moot Court Board and was recognized with the Best Brief Award and as a semifinalist in the Intramural Moot Court Competition.

Outside the office, Jack enjoys golf, recreational sports, fishing and cheering for Mizzou.
