Overview

Bridget Araldi focuses her practice on professional liability and business litigation.

During her time at Northeastern University School of Law, Bridget participated in the school's co-op program and interned for Judge Michael D. Ricciuti in the Business Litigation Session of the Suffolk Superior Court. She also completed two co-op cycles with MG+M, where she supported complex professional liability and business litigation matters through legal research, drafting, and case preparation.

Before attending law school, Bridget worked as a criminal defense paralegal in Austin, Texas.
