Overview

Sara Sakinedzad practices in the area of complex civil litigation.

Prior to joining MG+M, Sara worked with a California plaintiffs' litigation firm on matters involving catastrophic personal injury, medical malpractice, general liability, and mass tort claims. Her experience includes extensive motion and discovery practice, analysis of medical and expert evidence, and assessment of factual, evidentiary, and causation issues in developing case strategy. In connection with California wildfire claims, Sara worked as part of the litigation team and directly prepared claims that resulted in awards exceeding $48 million.

Sara earned her undergraduate degree from Cornell University, where she was a member of Alpha Epsilon Phi Sorority. While earning her Juris Doctor from Delaware Law School, Sara gained experience through a judicial externship with Judge Paul Panepinto of the Court of Common Pleas in Philadelphia. She was also a member of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity.

Sara lives in Maryland with her husband, Michael, and their two dogs, Fitzgerald and Dexter. Outside of work, she enjoys comedy shows and live music.

Sara is admitted to practice law in Maryland only, and not in California. She is supervised by licensed attorneys when applicable.
