Overview

Kristi Young is a partner in MG+M's San Francisco office, where she focuses her practice in the area of toxic tort and mass tort litigation. Kristi is experienced in handling complex civil litigation cases including leading depositions, making court appearances, preparing and arguing motions for summary judgment, and preparing cases for trial.

In the summer of 2004, Kristi was an extern for Hon. Gary W.B. Chang in Hawaii Circuit Court, where she drafted and presented briefs of motions and attended settlement conferences, hearings, and trials. Before attending law school, she worked for two years as a consultant in the Chicago area.

Recognition

- + While in law school, Kristi served as Comments Editor for the Santa Clara University Law Review, was a Galloway Moot Court finalist, and CALI Award, Contracts, recipient.
