

MG+M Obtains a Complete Defense Verdict After Four Days of Trial Cross Examination of Plaintiff's Causation Expert

September 25, 2019

On September 12, 2019, after a three week bench trial in San Mateo County, and submission of multiple closing briefs, MG+M obtained a complete defense verdict in a product liability and personal injury action for its client, a manufacturer of recreational vehicles. The decision came after four days of trial cross examination of the plaintiff's causation expert; the court did not find the expert to be credible.
