MG+M DEI Roundtable to Attend Shriver Center Virtual Gala

October 5, 2020

Six members of the MG+M Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Roundtable will attend the Shriver Center Virtual Gala: A Call for Racial Justice from October 7-9. This three-day event will feature artists, activists, advocates, and others working for racial justice, with a focus on the importance of reshaping laws and policies to bring systemic change. The Shriver Center on Poverty Law hopes to inspire movement for economic and racial justice, while raising crucial funds to support their work.

Amaryah Bocchino, Chief Diversity Officer & Women's Forum Co-Chair, and Mary Tucker, DEI and Pro Bono Coordinator, will be joined by associates Kyle Clawson and Danielle Sczesny, and paralegals Chelsea Bishop and Erica Featherston to represent MG+M during the virtual gala.
