Effective July 1, partner David Frohn will officially become a 50-year member of the Louisiana State Bar Association (LSBA)

June 10, 2021

MG+M is proud to share that effective July 1, partner David Frohn will officially become a 50-year member of the Louisiana State Bar Association (LSBA).

Throughout the last 50 years, David's volunteer service to the LSBA has included serving as a member of the Louisiana Attorney Disciplinary Board for 11 years, culminating in his service as board chair of this adjudicative body charged by the Supreme Court with responsibility for lawyer discipline statewide. He also served as a member of the Louisiana Supreme Court Bar Admissions Committee, and was responsible for writing the Louisiana Civil Procedure exam for the Louisiana Bar Examination.

Later this year, in September, David will also become a 35-year member of the State Bar of Texas.
