MG+M Partner Joshua Severit Secures Summary Judgment for a School District and Coach

June 24, 2021

MG+M Partner Joshua Severit recently won summary judgment on all claims against his clients, a school district and coach, in a case filed by the family of a student who injured himself while lifting weights at a school fitness facility. The family alleged willful and wanton misconduct against the district and weight training coach for failure to properly supervise, instruct, and train students in weightlifting techniques to avoid injury.
