

Timothy P. Tryniecki and J. Thomas Mudd published in Law360 article "When And How To Depose Fact Witnesses Remotely in 2022"

December 8, 2021

Virtual hearings will continue into 2022 which means courts and attorneys will continue to navigate the various elements of remote proceedings – including fact witness depositions.

MG+M litigators Timothy P. Tryniecki and J. Thomas Mudd authored an article in Law360 outlining the best practices on how to best prepare for remote depositions, from understanding regulations surrounding remote protocols to discussing technological considerations. Following these steps can help ensure that such a pivotal stage of the discovery process is consistent, compliant, and safe for all parties involved.
