Jeanette Riggins to Speak at Perrin Conferences "Cutting-Edge Issues in Asbestos Litigation" Conference

February 22, 2022

MG+M The Law Firm (MG+M) Partner Jeanette S. Riggins will speak at the "Cutting-Edge Issues in Asbestos Litigation" conference being held on Monday, March 7–Tuesday, March 8 at the Beverly Wilshire in Beverly Hills, California.

Jeanette will be a panelist on the topic "Large Verdicts in the Covid Era: What are the Long-Term Impacts? And Why?" discussing significant impacts on the relationship between insurance companies and corporations, how law firms are viewing trials differently, how jurors are changing, what to expect for 2022, and how companies view the risk. The session will take place on Tuesday, March 8 from 9–10 a.m.

Other sessions will address emerging trends and upcoming expectations for asbestos litigation, updates on talc litigation and the lung cancer docket, a review of recent bankruptcy filings and the impact on asbestos litigation, and more.

MG+M is a proud sponsor of the conference hosted by Perrin Conferences.
