

Bill Larson Named a Top Professional Under 40 by Delaware Business Times

August 15, 2022

MG+M The Law Firm Partner Bill Larson has been recognized in the Delaware Business Times 2022 Top 40 Under 40 (DBT40). The list names Delaware's 40 most accomplished business professionals under age 40 from across industries and distinguishes honorees for their leadership, career achievements and service to the community.

A Delaware native, Bill has built a successful legal practice focusing on Delaware general and commercial litigation matters, as well as national product liability litigation. As part of the firm's Delaware-based litigation group, he represents clients in pre-suit negotiations and litigation, including construction, real estate, business, contract and estate matters. He is also a member of MG+M's Pro Bono Committee and is passionate about making justice accessible to everyone.

Outside of work, Bill chairs the US Tennis Association's Delaware District Counsel and serves on the Archmere Academy Board of Trustees, the St. Thomas More Society Executive Committee and the DuPont Country Club Advisory Board. Prior to joining MG+M, Bill clerked on the Delaware Superior Court, served as Senior Assistant City Solicitor for the City of Wilmington and chaired the Wilmington Zoning Board of Adjustment.

The DBT40 includes Delaware leaders from organizations of all sizes in a wide range of fields, including finance, law, non-profit, hospitality, education and technology. The selection committee is made up of local business leaders and past DBT40 winners. Bill will be recognized amongst his fellow 2022 honorees at the Delaware Business Times annual award ceremony.

mgmlaw.com