Brian Gross Recognized as a Top Author in Readers' Choice Awards

March 4, 2024

MG+M The Law Firm Partner Brian Gross has been named a top author as part of the 2024 JD Supra Readers' Choice Awards for thought leadership he published last year.

In its Readers' Choice Awards, JD Supra recognizes top authors and firms for their coverage of key topics throughout the prior year. Authors are acknowledged for the level of readership their articles garnered from C-suite executives, in-house counsel, media and other professionals across the JD Supra platform.

MG+M is also recognized as a top firm for high levels of visibility and engagement on the articles our lawyers, including Brian, published last year.

The awards are based on reader data, including total visibility and engagement among readers across many industries interested in certain defining topics. JD Supra editors chose 31 main topics for timeliness and proven ongoing importance. For each topic, JD Supra recognizes 10 authors and one firm for consistently gaining the highest readership and engagement within that category for all of 2023. The awards recognize the excellence and achievement of 303 authors selected from over 70,000 who publish work on JD Supra.

JD Supra delivers legal and business content to professionals in all industries, connecting thought leaders writing on important topics to C-suite executives, in-house counsel and media members concerned with matters impacting business today.
