Two partners who joined the firm last month, Nancy McDonald and Gabriel Ferstendig, are resident in our New Jersey office. With more than 2,900 square feet, we have room to increase our attorney headcount in New Jersey as opportunities and client needs arise.

"Nancy and Gabriel bring robust New Jersey practices to the firm. Additionally, MG+M represents multiple national clients facing litigation in New Jersey seeking support in the area from our attorneys," says MG+M Chairperson and Partner John B. Manning. “This expansion further enhances our national footprint and ability to rapidly respond to our clients' litigation demands wherever they arise.”

Located in the northern part of the state, we are near various New Jersey courts and close to many of our employees and clients. The office is easily accessible by I-287 and near multiple major interstate highways, as well as train lines that go into Manhattan. We are 35 minutes from downtown Newark, 40 minutes from Newark International Airport and less than an hour from our New York City office. Basking Ridge sits at the heart of Somerset County, which boasts several nearby hotels, restaurants and shopping options.
