MG+M Welcomes Partner Missy Leon in Dallas and Los Angeles

October 24, 2024

MG+M The Law Firm welcomes Missy Leon as a partner in our Dallas and Los Angeles offices. Missy defends clients in commercial litigation, professional liability litigation and personal injury defense litigation.

Missy has extensive experience in commercial litigation, including cases involving breach of contract, fraud and defamation. She has served as a client liaison to Fortune 500 companies, managing multimillion-dollar litigation. Her background includes professional liability litigation in legal and medical malpractice, as well as director and officer liability cases involving negligence and breach of fiduciary duty claims. Additionally, she has defended clients across a vast range of industries facing toxic tort, product and premises liability, and personal injury claims. Her clients include Fortune 500 companies, major retailers and large organizations, such as oil and gas companies, pharmaceutical manufacturers and pharmacies, automotive supply manufacturers, amusement parks and ice-skating rinks, gyms, and apartment complexes.

“MG+M enthusiastically welcomes Missy to our firm as a valuable and esteemed partner. Our clients will benefit from her robust background and experience handling civil litigation across Texas and California, as well as in federal district courts,” says MG+M Chairperson and Partner John B. Manning. “Missy's arrival furthers the growth of our Dallas office and adds to our strong reputation as a go-to litigation firm in Texas, California and across the country.”

Missy joins MG+M from an AmLaw 200 defense litigation firm, along with Partner Misti Mosteller and a team of associates, paralegals and legal administrative staff. Missy received her JD from Southern Methodist University Law School and has a BA in psychology from Southern Methodist University.
