

Brian Gross and Mikaela Barbour Discuss EPA's PFAS Effluent Strategy

May 16, 2025

MG+M Partner Brian Gross and Associate Mikaela Barbour were recently quoted in Packaging Dive analyzing the US Environmental Protection Agency's evolving approach to regulating PFAS discharges from chemical and manufacturing facilities.

The article explores how the EPA under Administrator Lee Zeldin is revisiting effluent limitation guidelines (ELGs) for PFAS manufacturers and metal finishers. Brian and Mikaela offer insight on the regulatory uncertainty surrounding these changes, the financial burden on public water systems, and the growing role of state-level permit strategies in the absence of finalized federal rules.
