July 14, 2025

MG+M The Law Firm Regional Office Manager Danielle Steiner has been recognized in Missouri Lawyers Media's 2025 Unsung Legal Heroes special section. The list honors the law firm employees who have consistently gone above and beyond the call of duty, often behind the scenes, and the award is reserved for the state's most talented and dedicated legal support professionals.

As a regional office manager for MG+M The Law Firm, Danielle Steiner oversees the operations, administrative and human relations functions of the firm's offices in Chicago, Dallas, O'Fallon, New Jersey and New York. She joined the firm in the middle of the COVID-19 pandemic, and her colleagues say she “has been pivotal in leading her locations through effective remote and hybrid working and the return-to-office process, helping colleagues stay connected to each other and the broader firm culture across digital and in-person spaces.”

Having started as a paralegal, Danielle's journey at the firm reflects her willingness to take on new challenges, her positive team mentality and her wide-ranging skillset—qualities that have steadily expanded her role into a national presence with responsibilities across operations, administration, HR and practice management. Her investment in employees and demonstrated commitment to excellent client service embody what we call the MG+M “plus factor." A defining strength Danielle brings to every facet of her role is her ability to build strong internal networks that foster cohesive collaboration across teams, practices and the firm's offices across 16 cities nationwide—advancing MG+M's core value of operating as a truly integrated team.
