

MG+M to Open Edwardsville, Illinois, Office

July 30, 2025

MG+M The Law Firm is proud to announce the opening of a new office in Edwardsville, Illinois—marking a major milestone in our continued growth across southern Illinois, Missouri and nationwide. Opening in the fourth quarter of 2025, this new space in The Station on Main complex, solidifies MG+M's powerful presence in the thriving legal and commercial corridor within Madison County.

"Edwardsville has emerged as a legal and business hub in southwestern Illinois," says the office's Partner in Charge Kyler H. Stevens. "This location places us steps from the Madison County Courthouse in the heart of a dynamic and growing professional community and vibrant downtown center, strengthening client accessibility and talent recruitment."

MG+M's strong presence in Madison County continues to be a cornerstone of our national trial efforts. Our regional team plays a pivotal role in navigating complex litigation within one of the country's most active jurisdictions. Key members of our National Trial Team—as well as our toxic tort liability, products liability and medical device litigation, employment litigation, and business litigation practices—are strategically based in Madison County, a vital hub for defending clients in asbestos, benzene, diacetyl, talc and silica cases. These teams bring longstanding regional experience from our O'Fallon office, which is set to transition to Edwardsville over the next year.

"Securing this Edwardsville location accelerates our regional and national growth, elevates client service, and deepens our investment in our people and the communities we serve," says MG+M Chairperson and Partner John B. Manning. "With decades of trusted advocacy throughout southern Illinois and Missouri, this move enhances our capacity to deliver sophisticated, trial-ready counsel in a jurisdiction that matters greatly to our clients and their business."

Our office will span the second, third and fifth floors of a five-story building in this mixed-use development, occupying 100 percent of the available office space and providing convenient access to the complex's restaurant and retail spaces. Each floor is custom designed to support modern legal practice, enhance client service, and amplify the talent and energy of our team.

The Station on Main, located at 400 North Main Street in Edwardsville, is adjoined by an outdoor courtyard ideal for hosting clients, gathering office members and engaging with the community. The location offers seamless access to Interstates 55, 255 and 270—along with State Highways 143, 157 and Governor's Parkway—ensuring regional connectivity across the metro east area and beyond.

mgmlaw.com