Brian Gross Recognized as a Top Author in 2026 Readers' Choice Awards

February 23, 2026

MG+M The Law Firm Partner Brian Gross has been named a Top Author in the 2026 JD Supra Readers' Choice Awards for his thought leadership published in 2025.

JD Supra's Readers' Choice Awards recognize leading authors and firms for visibility and engagement across 33 key, cross-industry topics. Brian was recognized in the area of Product Liability based on readership and engagement from C-suite executives, in-house counsel, media members, and other professionals who rely on JD Supra for timely legal analysis.

The awards reflect a review of 2025 reader data measuring total visibility and engagement across JD Supra's platform. In each category, JD Supra recognizes 10 authors and one firm for consistently achieving the highest readership and engagement throughout the year. Across all categories, 342 authors were selected from more than 70,000 contributors publishing on the platform.

JD Supra connects professionals writing on important legal and business topics with executives, in-house counsel, and media members focused on issues impacting business today.
