MG+M Partner Jeff McLucas Wins Defense Verdict for Three National Property and Facilities Management Clients

May 27, 2016

MG+M partner Jeff McLucas has successfully defended three national property and facilities clients in a long pending case involving defective premises allegations in Massachusetts Superior Court where the Plaintiff sought $1 million for resulting permanent disabilities. The extensive litigation was pending for five years and involved 20 witnesses. The jury trial was a sequel to a prior two day evidentiary hearing, which involved the testimony of experts from both sides related to property ownership and title issues.
