MG+M Opens New Miami Office

April 5, 2017

MG+M proudly announces the opening of its Miami, Florida office. MG+M's expansion to Florida enhances the firm's coast-to-coast litigation capabilities and allows the firm to better serve its national and Florida clients' critical litigation needs in the areas of asbestos defense, products liability, construction defect, employment law, general liability, business disputes, and maritime law.

MG+M partner Rebecca Kibbe serves as the Partner in Charge of the firm's Florida practice. Accomplished trial lawyer Russell Pfeifer has also joined the firm as a partner. Rebecca, Russell, and their Florida team are excited to lead the opening of MG+M's 11th office and serve clients' litigation needs both in Florida and nationally.

“MG+M has considered entering the Florida market for some time, but the key, as always, was partnering with the right people,” commented partner John B. Manning, Chair of the firm's Complex Litigation Practice Group. “Rebecca and Russell identify perfectly with MG+M's core values of team work, creativity and relentless client service. Our Florida presence enhances our ability to serve our clients locally and nationally and presents the firm with many exciting growth opportunities. Most importantly, our clients are universally enthusiastic.”
