Partner Calos Poza to Discuss Ethical Duties in Construction Defect Litigation at Upcoming Perrin Conference

October 8, 2018

Join MG+M Partner Carlos Poza at Perrin Conferences' National Construction Defect Conference from November 14-16, 2018, at the Ritz Carlton Fort Lauderdale Hotel in Florida. Beginning at 8:45 AM, Carlos will be a featured panelist discussing the “Ethical Duties in Construction Defect Litigation” along with Jason D. Feld of Kahana & Feld LLP and Jennifer Franklin of The Main Street America Group. Conference attendees will receive updates, insights, and perspectives on construction defect litigation.

Carlos has extensive experience defending architects, engineers, developers, and general contractors in construction cases, and is routinely retained as primary litigation counsel in complex cases throughout California. Carlos also represents commercial and residential builders and specialty contractors in contracting, labor and employment matters, risk management, and ADR proceedings.
