

Corporate Law and Transactions

When facing corporate law matters, clients across industries trust MG+M to support their companies throughout the business life cycle. We advise on a range of legal issues spanning the corporate spectrum, including mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, commercial finance, commercial real estate development, health care transactions, private placement investments, and succession planning. Whatever the size and stage of your company, we help you find solutions tailored to your business.

As a litigation-focused firm with over 20 years of experience partnering with companies as trial and coordinating counsel on both a national and local level, we have a deep understanding of clients' business and objectives. We apply that experience supporting companies through the full spectrum of business and commercial litigation and investigations to advocate for your interests in and outside of the courtroom. We also draw on our national network and regional knowledge to identify the most effective path to achieving your business goals.
