

Mariner Liability Insurance Program

The 360 Coverage Pros Mariner Liability Insurance Program offers comprehensive coverage options for captains, masters, skippers, mates and engineers at low monthly rates—and applying online takes just minutes. Developed by marine professionals who understand the risks and challenges professional mariners face on a regular basis, this policy helps protect against the cost of collisions and provides policyholders with representation and guidance from initial USCG questioning through any investigations and proceedings.

Mariner liability insurance can provide you with an attorney experienced in maritime law to help with legal issues surrounding your marine license, insurance, depositions, court proceedings, witness statements and responses to letters of warning notices. National litigation firm MG+M The Law Firm partners with 360 Coverage Pros to provide skilled representation in maritime law issues so you can quickly get back on the water.

MG+M's maritime attorneys have decades of experience successfully litigating high-stakes maritime and marine casualty claims, as well as maritime-related personal injury, wrongful death, commercial litigation and contracts, insurance practice and policy, and product liability claims, from coast-to-coast and everywhere in between. MG+M attorneys also handle primary duties on the 360 Coverage Pros 24/7 legal hotline, which immediately connects the insured crew with an attorney and establishes a line of constant communication.

With their specific and extensive backgrounds in marine, civil and criminal law, MG+M attorneys are uniquely qualified to represent licensed crews in USCG Administrative hearings involving license suspension or revocation, as well as civil liability and criminal defense matters. The chair of MG+M's Maritime Litigation Practice, Raúl J. Chacón Jr., is board certified in admiralty and maritime law and has an established background successfully handling administrative hearings, civil matters and criminal matters. Raúl began his career as a prosecutor, and the MG+M team includes multiple other maritime attorneys with backgrounds in criminal law via prosecutors' offices and as public defenders. In addition to handling thousands of civil liability matters and successfully defending clients in USGC suspension and revocation hearings, Raúl has helped many clients avoid hearings by negotiating with the USCG in concert with the resolution of the related civil matter.

Raúl also has extensive experience as national and local counsel on marine products liability matters and is regularly appointed to act as national and local counsel by insurance companies on admiralty and maritime matters. He has tried over 100 cases to verdict in the state and federal courts of Florida and has represented clients in jurisdictions as far north as Canada and throughout the continental United States, Hawaii, the Caribbean and South America.

Raúl has served in executive capacities on the Florida Bar Admiralty & Maritime Law Board Certification Committee, the Florida Bar Maritime Law Committee, the Cuban American Bar Association, and the League of Prosecutors. He is an adjunct professor of Marine Insurance Law at the University of Miami School of Law and writes and presents on maritime law and practice, including as a co-author of Florida Maritime Law Practice and Procedure. He is AV© Preeminent rated and has been recognized by Super Lawyers, Top Lawyers in Florida for Admiralty & Maritime Law, Top Rated Lawyer for Commercial Litigation, Top Attorneys in Florida, Best Lawyers listing for Admiralty and Maritime Law, and the Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers.
